FLSR Conference & Group Retreat Center is available from September through mid-June each year. Our 2000 acre property is nestled in the mountains of the San Bernardino National Forest. The multi-use facilities are set in a calm, natural environment that will complement any group's purpose.

If you would like us to plan your program we have experts that can arrange an agenda for team building activities, guided nature excursions, night hikes, evening programs by the campfire at the outdoor amphitheater, and star gazing at the state-of-the-art planetarium. At your request we can create a program just for you.

Accommodating up to 200 guests, our 5 new lodges each have a large central great room, a kitchenette with microwave, stove and oven, private baths with showers and outdoor patios. Plus Wireless Internet service.

We can also provide delicious and nutritious meals served buffet style to your group in our dining hall. Our chef offers a variety of culinary options for every dietary need.

FLSR Conference & Group Retreat is available for Weekends and Day Use or by the Week.

MOUNTAIN LODGES each sleep 40 comfortably with private restroom and shower facilities, common area, kitchenette and outdoor patios with views of the mountains and private lake.
